

AMERICAN ACADEMY of ACTUARIES

Bruce D. Schobel

Studied mathematics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology.

Has worked at the New York Life Insurance Company since 1990 as an actuary in the company's Tax Department. From 1988-1990, worked at William M. Mercer, Inc. as a Principal in the Social Security and Medicare Information Services unit.

From 1979-88, worked at the Social Security Administration (SSA) in various actuarial and policy-related positions, including Senior Advisor for Policy, Office of the Commissioner.

Currently serves as the Chairperson of the American Academy of Actuaries' Social Insurance Committee.

Stephen C. Goss

Attended University of Pennsylvania and University of Virginia, studying mathematics and economics.

Has worked at the Office of the Actuary, SSA, since 1973 and has been Chief Actuary since January 2001.

Has worked in developing methodologies and estimates for the OASDI program and for Medicare.

Has worked closely with the executive branch, Congress, advisory councils, and other groups on matters related to Social Security.