Article IX

Discipline

SECTION 1. Complaints and Referrals.

- A. Complaints concerning alleged violations of the Academy's Code of Professional Conduct, and all questions that may arise as to the conduct of a member, in the member's relationship to the Academy or its members, or in the member's professional practice, or affecting the interests of the actuarial profession, constitute matters for serious consideration.
- B. Such complaints and questions shall be referred to the national organization responsible for profession wide counseling and discipline in the nation where the action occurred: the Actuarial Board for Counseling and Discipline (ABCD) in the United States and in any other country where the Academy has not executed a cross-border discipline agreement with a foreign national actuarial organization, and the appropriate foreign national actuarial organization with which the Academy has executed a cross-border discipline agreement (for example, the Canadian Institute of Actuaries in Canada). The Academy will publish a list of foreign national actuarial organizations with which it has executed a cross-border discipline agreement.

(Section 1.B amended and effective May 18, 2023)

SECTION 2. Consideration of Disciplinary Action Under A Joint Discipline Agreement

The Academy may enter into an agreement with one or more other U.S.-based actuarial organizations establishing and implementing a joint disciplinary process under which disciplinary recommendations concerning Academy members will be considered and acted upon. A two-thirds vote of the entire Board of Directors shall be required for the Academy to enter into, amend or withdraw from such an agreement. In the event the Academy is a party to such a joint discipline agreement, the terms of such agreement shall govern the consideration and adjudication of disciplinary recommendations concerning Academy members. If the Academy is not a party to such an agreement, disciplinary recommendations concerning Academy members shall be governed by Sections 3 and 4.

Any joint discipline agreement entered into by the Academy must include appropriate due process and respect of the member's rights, including the right to appear before a discipline panel and the right to appeal to a panel other than the discipline panel.

Any decisions under a joint discipline agreement requiring Academy review before taking effect will be reviewed by a six-person panel of members of the Board of Directors appointed by the President.

SECTION 3. Academy Consideration of Disciplinary Action

This section shall govern proceedings to consider and act upon disciplinary recommendations concerning Academy members, unless the Academy is a party to a joint discipline agreement as set forth in Section 2, in which case the terms of such joint discipline agreement shall govern:

- A. The President shall appoint a six-person Disciplinary Committee from among the current or former members of the Board who, at the time of their appointment, have served on the Board within the past five years to consider and act upon a recommendation from the ABCD or the appropriate foreign national actuarial organization for public discipline of an Academy member.

- B. Public disciplinary action includes a public reprimand, suspension of Academy membership, or expulsion from the Academy. Private disciplinary action includes a private reprimand. A referral for counseling shall not constitute discipline.
- C. The member who is the subject of a disciplinary recommendation from the ABCD or the appropriate foreign national actuarial organization shall have the right to appear personally and by counsel (at the member's expense) before the Disciplinary Committee to explain why that recommendation should not be followed. The role of the member's counsel shall be limited to advising the member and articulating appropriate legal objections; the role of the Disciplinary Committee's counsel shall be similarly limited.
- D. The member involved shall be notified not less than 45 days in advance as to the time, date, and place where the Disciplinary Committee will consider the matter. The notification may be made by certified mail or in such other manner as the Disciplinary Committee Chairperson may direct. The time limit may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties.
- E. An action of the Disciplinary Committee to refer for counseling, privately reprimand, publicly reprimand, suspend, or expel a member requires an affirmative vote of two-thirds of the whole membership of the Disciplinary Committee.
- F. An action by the Disciplinary Committee to privately reprimand, publicly reprimand, suspend the membership of, or expel a member is effective 45 days after the date of the action, if the member does not appeal the action to the Appeal Panel as provided in Section 3 below, and, in the event of such an appeal, the action is effective on the date when the appeal is decided by the Appeal Panel.

SECTION 4. Appeals.

This section shall govern appeals of disciplinary determinations made pursuant to Section 3. It shall not apply to appeals of determinations made under a joint discipline agreement of which the Academy is a party, as set forth under Section 2.

A member against whom an order of private reprimand, public reprimand, suspension, or expulsion has been rendered shall, upon application to the President within 45 days after the action of the Disciplinary Committee, be entitled to appeal under the following conditions:

- A. The President shall appoint a six-person Appeal Panel from among the members of the Board of Directors (except as provided in Subsection 2 below) to consider and act upon the member's appeal. The Appeal Panel shall consist of:
 - 1. A chairperson who is the President, the President-Elect, the immediate Past President, or the Secretary-Treasurer;
 - 2. The chairperson of the Disciplinary Committee (even if that person is no longer a member of the Board of Directors) as a non-voting member; and
 - 3. Four members of the Board of Directors who did not participate on the Disciplinary Committee. Officers identified in Section 4(A) (1) who do not chair the Appeal Panel may participate as members of the Appeal Panel.
- B. The notice of appeal shall be in writing and shall stipulate that the appealing member consents to the mailing to the members of the Appeal Panel of a transcript and all applicable evidence in a form approved by the Disciplinary Committee.
- C. All rights and privileges of membership shall be retained during the pendency of the appeal.

- D. The member may appear personally and by counsel (at the member's expense) before the Appeal Panel to explain why the action of the Disciplinary Committee should be reduced or set aside. The role of the member's counsel shall be limited to advising the member and articulating appropriate legal objections; the role of the Appeal Panel's counsel shall be similarly limited.
- E. The decision of the Disciplinary Committee may be affirmed, reduced, or set aside by a majority of the Appeal Panel.
- F. The member involved shall be notified not less than 45 days in advance as to the time, date, and place where the Appeal Panel will consider the matter. The notification may be made by certified mail or in such other manner as the chairperson of the Appeal Panel may direct. The time limit may be waived by mutual agreement of the parties.

(Section 3 amended May 21, 2009, effective the close of the annual meeting October 26, 2009)

(Section 4 amended April 29, 2015, effective the close of the annual meeting November 12, 2015)

SECTION 5. Reinstatement. An individual who has been expelled or suspended from the Academy may be reinstated only through an action of the Board of Directors.

SECTION 6. Confidentiality of Proceedings.

Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, a joint discipline agreement of which the Academy is a party, or by waiver of the person under investigation, all proceedings under this Article shall be confidential and kept secret. If the person discloses any aspect of these confidential proceedings, the Academy may research the source and manner of the disclosure, and reserves the right to respond to such disclosure by providing factual information about the proceedings.

SECTION 7. Notifications.

- A. The Academy shall notify Academy members in all instances in which a member is subject to public discipline. At the same time notification is given to the members, the Academy shall also give notice of the public discipline to all other actuarial organizations of which the individual is a member and to other organizations, including government entities, that, in the opinion of the Disciplinary Committee or the Appeal Panel, should also receive notice of the action. The Academy may also give notice of public discipline to such newspapers or journals as it may select.
- B. If the case arises from a written complaint, notice of the disposition of the case shall be furnished to the complainant.
- C. In the case of an action to publicly reprimand, suspend, or expel a member, the notification should take place within a reasonable period of time after the action has taken effect as described in Section 3(F) above or, if the Academy is a party to a joint discipline agreement, as set forth under the terms of such agreement.
- D. In the event of subsequent reinstatement of an expelled or suspended member, the Academy shall give notice of such action to all members and also to entities previously advised by the Academy of the expulsion or suspension.

SECTION 8. Procedures. The Board of Directors may establish procedures for implementation of this Article that are not inconsistent with this Article.

(Article 9 amended and effective May 21, 2008)

(Article 9 amended May 21, 2009 effective the close of the annual meeting October 26, 2009)

(Article 9 amended by vote of the members in August 2011 and renumbered effective September 12, 2011)

Article X

Actuarial Board for Counseling and Discipline

SECTION 1. Establishment and Purposes.

- A. There shall be established within the Academy an entity to be known as the Actuarial Board for Counseling and Discipline (ABCD). Upon delegation of appropriate authority from a participating actuarial organization and acceptance of that delegation by the ABCD, the ABCD will be authorized:
1. To consider all complaints concerning alleged violations or information suggesting possible violations of the applicable Code(s) of Professional Conduct and all questions that may arise as to the conduct of a member of a participating actuarial organization in the member's relationship to the organization or its members, in the member's professional practice, or affecting the interests of the actuarial profession.
 2. To counsel actuaries concerning their professional activities related to the applicable Code(s) of Professional Conduct in situations where the ABCD deems counseling appropriate.
 3. To recommend a disciplinary action with respect to an actuary to any participating organization of which that actuary is a member.
 4. To mediate issues between members of participating actuarial organizations, or between such members and the public, for the purpose of informally resolving issues concerning the professional conduct of such members.
 5. To respond to requests for guidance regarding professionalism from members of the participating organizations.

- B. The ABCD is authorized to establish Rules of Procedure and operating guidelines not inconsistent with the requirements of this Article. Such Rules of Procedure shall provide that the subject of an inquiry will be given the following:
1. Notice of the inquiry along with the factual basis for the inquiry and an opportunity to comment on the matter before the ABCD determines whether an investigation should be initiated.
 2. Notice of the ABCD's decision to refer the inquiry to Investigators, their names, and an opportunity to object for cause in writing to any of them.
 3. The opportunity to comment on an Investigative Report before the ABCD uses the Report to vote on disposition of the inquiry.
 4. Reasonable notice of a hearing to be conducted regarding the actuary's work and/or conduct, including the issues for inquiry and the date, time, and place of the hearing.
 5. Within a reasonable period of time prior to a hearing, the names of any witnesses whose testimony the ABCD expects to consider and copies of case-specific documents not previously provided to the subject of the inquiry that the ABCD expects to consider.
 6. Notice and a reasonable opportunity to respond to additional relevant, material case-specific documents and witnesses that the ABCD first learns of during a hearing, if the ABCD intends to consider such. The notice shall include a copy of such documents and the names and last known addresses of witnesses.
 7. The right to assistance of counsel during a hearing, including the right to seek and receive advice from counsel and to have counsel articulate appropriate legal objections.
 8. Prompt notification of the results of an ABCD hearing after they have been determined and formulated. The ABCD shall expose, for comment, proposed revisions of its Rules of Procedure to the profession or to membership organizations for publication to their members.

SECTION 2. Members and Appointments.

- A. The ABCD shall consist of nine persons appointed from the membership of the participating organizations, each of whom shall be appointed for a three-year term. No individual may serve more than two consecutive terms on the ABCD, except that a member appointed to complete an unexpired term may be reappointed to two full consecutive three-year terms. Terms of membership shall be staggered, so that one-third of the members are appointed annually.
- B. Members of the ABCD shall be broadly representative of all areas of actuarial practice. They shall be appointed by, and serve at the pleasure of, the Selection Committee, composed of the Presidents and Presidents-Elect of the American Academy of Actuaries, the Casualty Actuarial Society, and the Society of Actuaries, or their successor organizations. The President of the Academy shall serve as Chairperson of the Selection Committee. The Selection Committee shall annually appoint the chairperson of the ABCD. An individual appointed Chairperson may not serve more than two consecutive terms as Chairperson.

- C. If a vacancy arises among the members of the ABCD, the Selection Committee shall designate a replacement to fill out the remainder of the term. The replacement will complete that term, and may be reappointed for two additional consecutive three-year terms. When a full-term or replacement member has attended a hearing as an ABCD member, such member may serve beyond his or her term of appointment solely for the purpose of participating in the ABCD's disposition of that matter.

Where three or more members of the ABCD have an actual or apparent conflict of interest with regard to a particular matter, with the result that a quorum of the ABCD cannot practicably be convened to consider the matter, the Selection Committee may, in response to a request from the ABCD, appoint enough special members to the ABCD to form a quorum to consider that matter. The special members shall consider only the matter(s) for which appointed, and the term of each such special member shall end at the conclusion of the ABCD's consideration of such matter(s).

(Section 2 amended and effective May 2, 2014)

(Section 2 amended and effective September 4, 2018)

SECTION 3. Officers. The Officers of the ABCD shall consist of the Chairperson and two Vice Chairpersons, who shall be appointed annually from among the members of the ABCD by the Selection Committee.

(Section 3 amended and effective May 2, 2014)

SECTION 4. Meetings and Conduct of Business. The ABCD shall meet at least once each year. Meetings may be called by the Chairperson or at the request of at least three members. Six members of the ABCD shall constitute a quorum. Meetings may be conducted in person or via telephone. In the event that neither the Chairperson nor a Vice Chairperson is able to participate at a duly called meeting where a quorum is present, the members may, by a majority of those participating, select a Chairperson Pro Tem for that meeting.

SECTION 5. Procedures.

- A. For any matter described in Section 1.A.1 that comes to the attention of the ABCD, the Chairperson and the two Vice Chairpersons may by majority vote agree to: (1) dismiss the matter, (2) authorize a mediator to attempt to resolve the matter, or (3) authorize a review of the matter.
- B. An actuary whose activities are the subject of ABCD inquiry is referred to as a "subject actuary."
- C. To review a matter, the Chairperson shall appoint a primary Investigator and may appoint additional Investigators. ABCD members shall not be Investigators.
1. The Investigator(s) shall investigate activities which may involve violations of the applicable Code(s) of Professional Conduct. The Investigator(s) shall then prepare an Investigative Report for the ABCD, which contains the results of the investigation.
 2. The Investigator(s) shall follow applicable Rules of Procedure and operating guidelines established by the ABCD, which shall not be inconsistent with the provisions of this Article.

- D. The Chairperson may designate individuals with special expertise in various specialty areas to serve as Advisers to the ABCD. Investigator(s) and the ABCD may consult confidentially with such Advisers who have information or experience relevant to a matter under consideration.
- E. Following receipt of the Investigative Report, the ABCD shall determine by majority vote whether to (1) dismiss the matter; (2) counsel the actuary; or (3) schedule, in accordance with the Rules of Procedure described in Section 1.B of this Article, a fact-finding hearing before the ABCD.
- F. In any hearing before the ABCD:
 - 1. The subject actuary shall have the right to appear personally, to examine the evidence to be considered by the ABCD, to question witnesses appearing at the hearing, and to present witnesses and evidence.
 - 2. The subject actuary may be accompanied by counsel, at no expense to the ABCD. The counsel's role in such instance shall be defined by the Rules of Procedure adopted by the ABCD, subject to the requirements of Section 1.B.7 of this Article. The role of counsel for the ABCD shall be similarly defined.
 - 3. The ABCD shall decide all questions of evidence at the hearing.
 - 4. A written transcript shall be made of the proceedings and a copy made available to the subject actuary.
- G. Following the conclusion of the hearing and based on the evidence (including testimony), only those ABCD members participating in the hearing shall, by affirmative vote of five or more members, determine to (1) dismiss the matter; (2) counsel the actuary; or (3) recommend discipline to the subject actuary's membership organization(s), including the form of such discipline: private reprimand (if permitted by the membership organization's bylaws or rules), public reprimand, suspension, or expulsion. If the ABCD believes it would be beneficial, it may also counsel an actuary for whom discipline is recommended.

If the ABCD recommends discipline, the ABCD shall prepare a written report addressed to each participating organization of which the subject actuary is a member. The report shall identify the precepts of the applicable Code(s) of Professional Conduct that the ABCD believes to have been violated, state the nature of the violations, and make a recommendation as to the form of discipline. The report shall be accompanied by a transcript of the hearing and copies of all documents considered at the hearing. A copy of the report and accompanying material shall be provided to the subject actuary.

SECTION 6. Counseling. The ABCD shall counsel a subject actuary when the ABCD determines counseling to be more appropriate than dismissal of a matter. The ABCD may also counsel a subject actuary for whom it recommends discipline. Counseling shall not be considered a disciplinary action.

- A. The finances of the ABCD will be accounted for separately within the Academy system of accounts. The ABCD will submit a budget request to the Secretary-Treasurer, listing all planned income sources and potential expenses, in such form and in such detail as is mutually determined by the Secretary-Treasurer and the ABCD. The Board of the Academy will consider this request when adopting its annual budget and will make provision within such budget for the operating expenses of the ABCD.
- B. The ABCD will have discretion with regard to the expenditure of all funds allocated to it, subject only to such accounting and audit requirements as may be mutually determined by the Secretary-Treasurer and the ABCD.

SECTION 9. Confidentiality. Except as otherwise provided in these Bylaws, all proceedings under this Article shall be kept confidential by the ABCD, its staff, investigators, and advisers. This requirement as to confidentiality shall not preclude the ABCD from:

- A. Advising complainants and subject actuaries about the progress and outcome of matters under consideration;
- B. Reviewing previously closed files as they may relate, in any manner, to the consideration of a new matter before it;
- C. Accepting a bona fide waiver of confidentiality from a subject actuary and disclosing information pursuant to that waiver that would otherwise be kept confidential under this section, subject to such terms and conditions as the ABCD deems necessary to protect the confidentiality rights of other parties and the integrity of the ABCD process.

SECTION 10. Communications. The ABCD shall issue an annual report that will include a description of its activities for the prior fiscal year, including commentary on the types of cases pending, resolved, and dismissed. The ABCD may also disseminate educational materials to assist actuaries in understanding the application of the Code(s) of Professional Conduct in various situations that may arise. These reports and educational materials shall not reveal any confidential information. The ABCD shall also report quarterly to the President of each participating organization concerning inquiries, issues, and counseling activities related to members of that organization.
