American Academy of Actuaries Announces Election of Regular Directors

WASHINGTON – 07 Oct. 2011 – The American Academy of Actuaries announced that its members have elected Mary Bahna-Nolan, Ken Kent, and Catherine Murphy-Barron to fill open regular director positions on the professional association’s board of directors. They will serve three-year terms.

Bahna-Nolan is a director in the life practice of actuarial and insurance management solutions in PricewaterhouseCoopers’ Chicago office. Kent is a consulting actuary in Cheiron’s McLean, Va., office. Murphy-Barron is a consulting actuary for Milliman in New York. She had been elected in 2010 to complete the remaining year of a regular director term that had been vacated by Stephen Rosen, who was elected secretary by the board of directors.

Their terms will begin on Oct. 28. Voting occurred between Aug. 3 and Sept. 2 using online balloting.
