American Academy of Actuaries Issues Discipline Notice

WASHINGTON—The American Academy of Actuaries announced that the following discipline action became effective on July 20, 2018.

Notice of Public Discipline
(Effective Date July 20, 2018)

The American Academy of Actuaries (Academy), acting in accordance with the Academy’s bylaws and in light of the findings and recommendation from the Actuarial Board for Counseling and Discipline (ABCD) and a decision of an Academy Disciplinary Committee, hereby expels Scott Allen, currently of Atlanta, Georgia, from the Academy for materially failing to comply with his obligations under Precept 1 and Precept 9 of the Code of Professional Conduct.

Mr. Allen pled guilty to charges of securities fraud and conspiracy to commit securities fraud in connection with an insider trading scheme. In furtherance of this scheme, Mr. Allen knowingly breached a duty of confidentiality to his principals in material violation of Precept 9. His actions have been determined to reflect adversely on the actuarial profession and undermine the profession’s responsibility to the public in violation of Precept 1 of the Code of Professional Conduct.
