

AMERICAN ACADEMY of ACTUARIES

Objective. Independent. Effective.™

Richard Gibson

MAAA, FCAS

Richard Gibson, a property/casualty actuary with nearly 40 years of actuarial experience, is the senior property/casualty fellow at the American Academy of Actuaries. He serves as the actuarial profession's chief public policy liaison on property/casualty issues.

In this role, Mr. Gibson communicates the Academy's work on casualty actuarial issues including cybersecurity, extreme events and climate risk, workers' compensation, medical professional liability, automobile insurance, and many more P/C issues to public policymakers and the public.

Mr. Gibson, who most recently worked as an actuarial consultant, has worked on a diverse portfolio of insurance lines throughout his career, including homeowners', automobile, workers' compensation, and specialty and commercial property lines. Before 2018, he served 14 years as chief actuary of Hallmark Financial Services in Fort Worth, Texas, where he also was the company's appointed actuary. From 2000 to 2003 he was an independent actuarial consultant. Earlier in his career, Gibson directed or managed actuarial services for several insurers, including the California State Auto Association, TIG Insurance Company, Nationwide Insurance, Farmers Insurance Group, Allstate, and others.

Mr. Gibson is a member of the American Academy of Actuaries and a fellow of the Casualty Actuarial Society. He received a bachelor's degree in mathematics/statistics from the Miami University in Oxford, Ohio.